 “ VERY HELPFUL

Alessio was thorough, diligent and kept me updated at all time points. I was very impressed with his performance, passion and dedication. I will continue to use his services.

 “ VERY FAST, VALUE FOR MONEY AND A COMPREHENSIVE SERVICE

AGR is professional, organised and very skilled at what they do. They take the initiative, looking after all the details that you would not have thought of to enhance your website presence, marketing funnel and automated appointment bookings. Big bonus - pricings are at a fraction of the cost of competitors.

 “ EXCELLENT SERVICE

Alessio developed our website for our business and has done a wonderful job. He is very personable and knowledgeable. We have enjoyed working with him. We will be referring others to him and highly recommend him to those who need Tech advice.

Alessio from AGR Technology has recently helped me create a website for my business. Throughout the whole process from start to finish Alessio made the process easy for me, by calling me and explaining each step of the way. I'm not very computer savvy, but with Alessio taking the time to explain in detail everything I needed to know from putting inventory in to having it shipped. He even remotely joined my computer to help guide me through everything. He's very knowledgeable and is experienced in everything I needed and if there was anything else I needed to know that wasn't something he was familiar with, he researched it. I would HIGHLY recommend Alessio to anyone. He has not only helped me for now but I know that if I ever needed help with anything else he would definitely go above and beyond to help. Thank you so much for everything you have done. It's been a long process but well worth it 😊

We used AGR Technology and dealt with Alessio to design and build our website as well as host our emails. Alessio was as pleasure to deal with and had plenty of ideas that we could implement into our site. He has a great attention to detail, he is also very polite in understanding our goals and what we wanted to achieve with our website.

Thanks mate,
Alex & Rob

From a family business point of view and also personally, AGR Technology has been a game changer. Alessio helped us relocate our business IT and all that it entails from a large corporate company to his local company. A much more hands on approach and where required onsite help to keep our family business competitive and moving. Alessio's attention to detail ensures a job well done.
